Cruinneachadh na Bliadhna Ùr New Year Families Assembly

Stornoway Primary School welcomed in the New Year last week at our annual New Year Families Assembly at Martin's Memorial Church. Rev Tommy Macneil, our school chaplain, lead the service. Tommy reminded us all about how important our contributions are in the community and encouraged us to all be the best version of ourselves this year. The pupils are busy setting new targets for their learning and we look forward to supporting their progress and celebrating their achievements in the coming year.

Pròiseact Dileab

GM6 and GM7 began their collaboration with the Dileab project this week focusing on Lord Leverhulme. Seonag MacKinnon presented a lesson on the historical context of Lord Leverhulme. The pupils really enjoyed working with Seonag and were so enthusiastic to learn about the history of Lewis. Throughout this term, GM6 and GM7 will be working with Seonag, Marisa MacDonald and Alasdair Macleod to explore the story of Lord Leverhulme. They hope to showcase their learning in a production in March.
